

why is it necessary for someone to own so many stations? greed is not an american value and corporations are not citizens. citizens are your concern do not allow changes to the current regulations